

Biography for

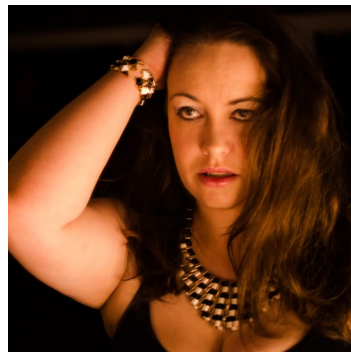

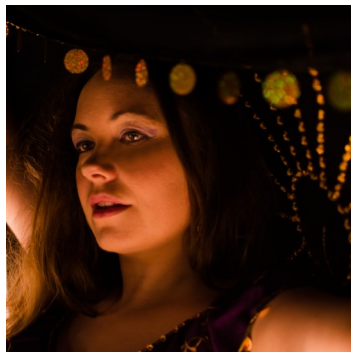

L. STARLA

Laelia Starla is an Australian author who was often found raiding her mother's shelves for any form of fiction she could get her hands on. Her first love was the horror genre, but she owes her passionate affair with the romance novel to her high-school English teacher, who got her hooked on the classics.

Given her earlier reading, magical realism and paranormal romance seemed like a natural progression.

Her books include contemporary and paranormal romance with themes of forbidden relationships, complexities of love, romantic suspense, enemies to lovers, second chances, slow-burning chemistry, and polyamory.

When she isn't writing, Laelia loves reading, playing tabletop and video games, paper crafting, singing, dancing, and watching anime.
